From the Rector _____

Based on St. Paul's image of the whole armour of God in Ephesians 6:11-20, the following text is offered as a spiritual exercise that you might wish to pray as you dress each the morning. Thanks to Kim Grant for making this available.

THE BELT OF TRUTH:

Thank you, Lord, for showing me the truth about yourself. Thank you for reminding me that You are the only God, the Creator of heaven and earth, the King of the universe, my Father who loves me, and my Shepherd who leads me. You are my wisdom, my counsellor, my hope, and my strength. You are everything I need each day.

THE BREASTPLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS:

Thank you for showing me the truth about myself--that on my own I could never be good enough to live in your presence. Thank you for taking my sins to the cross and offering me your righteous life. Lord, show me any sin that I need to confess right now, so that nothing will hinder me from being filled to overflowing with your Spirit. Thank you for forgiving me and for filling me with your righteous life.

THE SANDALS OF PEACE:

Thank you for the peace you give me when I trust and follow you. Show me how to help others find that peace.

THE SHIELD OF FAITH:

Thank you for helping me have faith in you. I choose to count on everything you have shown me about yourself--and everything you have promised me in your Word.

THE HELMET OF SALVATION:

Thank you for promising me salvation both for today's battles and for all eternity.

THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT, THE WORD OF GOD:

Thank you for the scriptures you have given me to memorize. Please show me which ones you want me to use to cut through deceptions and gain your victory in any battle I may face today.

We see through a glass darkly, but God is working. He's using your failures and your mistakes, and he's bringing a harvest that you can't even imagine. Last summer, I went to Kenya and met a 54-year-old sponsored child. Jackson was an orphan who was sponsored in 1974 by a family that probably said, "Well, we can't solve global poverty, but we can help one little boy." In 2016, Jackson Ole Sapit was named the sixth archbishop of the Anglican Church of Kenya. We were just trying to feed some hungry kids; God was growing an archbishop. There's a famous Mother Teresa quote: "God has not called me to be successful. He has called me to be faithful." And that's important to remember when you're dealing with problems that seem hopeless. We just have to be faithful with what is in front of us—to do the best we can and trust God for the outcome.
